

UGFA is pleased to announce the 2013 winner of The Jay Newman Award for Academic Integrity is *Dr. James Turk, Executive Director, Canadian Association of University Teachers (CAUT).

The Jay Newman Award is for the purpose of recognizing a university scholar and teacher who either at a particular time or in the course of an academic career has demonstrated combined meritorious academic achievement with noteworthy courage or compassion in the defense of academic ideals.

The award honours the memory of Dr. Jay Newman, F.R.S.C., a distinguished member of the University of Guelph Philosophy department whose thirty-six years of service were ended by his death in 2007. The author of eleven books, he was a successful and popular teacher and an active participant in the life of the University. He was widely known as a fearless and articulate defender of academic freedom as a core value of a university, and of the rights of faculty members.

Congratulations to the 2013 winners of the Distinguished Professorial Award:

Recipients of the annual Teaching and Academic Librarianship Awards are selected from nominations made by colleagues and students, and recognizes excellence in contributions to the University.
